Richer and more muscular than the Frémiets, the 2019 Volnay 1er Cru Les Champans evokes notions of cherries, sweet berries, orange rind and loamy soil. Medium to full-bodied, layered and multidimensional, it's deep and concentrated, concluding with a long finish. This is the domaine's largest premier cru holding, planted in 1934, 1971 and 1985.

Aromas of sweet berries, spices and raw cocoa, framed by a deft touch of oak, introduce the 2019 Volnay 1er Cru Les Fremiets, a medium to full-bodied, deep and succulent wine with fine mid-palate volume, lively acids and an attractively saline finish. This cuvée derives from old vines, some dating back to 1932.

Aromas of black plums and raspberries, framed by a deft touch of spicy oak, introduce the 2019 Volnay Vieilles Vignes, a medium-bodied, lively and nicely concentrated wine built around bright acids and powdery tannins. From eight parcels amounting to some 1.8 hectares, it's the domaine's most consequential cuvée.
